Let's Hear it for the Blue and White

The PVES School Song

By Mr. Fred Schwinger

Let's hear it for the blue and white
At Putnam Valley our minds take flight
It's a most amazing place
A place so warm and safe
Let's hear it for the blue and white

Together we stand proud and true
'Cause there's nothing that we can't do
We are one big family
I'm for you and you're for me
Together we stand proud and true

So stand up and give a cheer, hip-hooray!
For the school we hold so dear
Old PV is still the best
Way ahead of all the rest
So stand up and give a
Stand up and give a
Stand up and give a cheer! Hip-hooray!

How do you feel about learning to be a creative problem solver? If this is an area that interests you, please think about being a part of Destination Imagination, one of the largest creative problem solving institutions in the world!

Destination Imagination has two main components, a central challenge and instant challenges. Participants learn to work on one central challenge over several months, working to understand the challenge and to answer it in the most creative way. Team members are also given instant challenges that must be solved on the spot. You and your team managers work to use creative problems solving tools to help you be successful.

Additional information about this year’s central challenge can be found on the New York Destination Imagination website: <http://nydi.org> Look under the “2012-13 Challenge Previews”.

Teams cannot run without a manager or co-managers. Please ask your parent if they are willing to manage a team. Help will be provided for them.

EVERYONE, EVEN IF YOU HAVE BEEN ON A TEAM FROM A PRIOR YEAR, MUST SEND IN THIS FORM. TEAMS CANNOT BE REGISTERED UNLESS ALL THEIR FORMS ARE IN.

If you have other questions or concerns, please contact Barbara Parmly at: bparmly@pvcسد.org.
