

PVHS Literary Magazine Writing Contest

Are you interested in entering the PVHS Lit Mag Writing Contest?

You can respond to one or both of the prompts and submit them on the Study Wiz Assignment or email them to Mr. Lathrop at rlathrop@pvcasd.org

1. "If I ruled the world..."- Use this thought to begin an essay, story, or poem. Have fun!

2. "Hidden or unseen things"- Use this idea to generate a creative text. There are many things in our world that go unnoticed or unobserved but still have power and beauty. There are many elements of our lives that we do not regularly notice but still drive much of the world, or at least deserve attention. Write about one or many.

Winners will have their work entered into our Spring 2014 Literary Magazine!

All PVHS students are welcome to submit art and writing for our 2014 Spring Edition using the above prompts or any ideas of your own. Here is a chance to get your writing and art out to other students!

Check out our website to see our past issues and to find more inspiration: www.pvcasd.org/litmag

Please submit your writing through the StudyWiz assignment or through email to rlathrop@pvcasd.org

Due Date for all work is April 23rd. Any questions please see Mr. Lathrop in room 314.
